

Martin Luther King, Jr.

Duet for Women or Women's Chorus and Piano

Words and Music
by Hugh Goodridge

Moving

Voice I

Moving

Piano

3

I

II

King stood up for all peo - ple Not just in this

Lu - ther King peo - ple

5

I

II

na - tion but a - cross the globe We are all one

na - tion cross the globe

7

I
 peo - ple — that's what he was say - ing — Let's go out u -

II
 peo - ple, peo - ple Oo, — Let's go out u -

9

I ni-ted in that kind of robe. Oo —

II
 ni-ted in that kind of robe. Mar-tin Lu-ther King — looked be-yond skin

12

I Oo — Oo, — he was col-or blind Peo-ple by the

II
 col-or — Summed up we can say — he was col-or blind —

15

I
thou-sands                      flocked to join his mar - ches                      Seek - ing e - qual

II
Peo - ple by the thou - sands                      flocked to join his mar - ches                      Seek - ing e - qual

17

I
jus - tice    with hate    left    be - hind.

II
jus - tice    with hate    left    be - hind.

19 Chorus

I
Let us keep his mis - sion high _                      Nev - er let it dim or die _

II
Let us keep his mis - sion high _                      Nev - er let it dim or die _

21

I
Sing the songs that made his mes-sage shine. — We can have a bet-ter life _

II
Sing the songs that made his mes-sage shine. — We can have a bet-ter life _

24

I
Kill the fi - ery flame of strife Hold the pow'r of love_ on all_ the

II Kill the fi - ery flame of strife Hold the pow'r of love_ on all_ the

26

I
time. Mar-tin Lu-ther King — was a peace -

II
time. Lu-ther King

28

I
mak - er _____ E - ven when ar - rest - ed _____ nev - er made a

II
ma - ker _____ Oo _____

30

I
scene _____ Sought the wings of free - dom _____ then went in - to

II
Oo _____ free - dom, free - dom! _____

32

I
ac - tion _____ Laid his mes - sage firm - ly in "I have a dream."

II
Oo _____ firm - ly in "I have a dream."