

Armor of Light

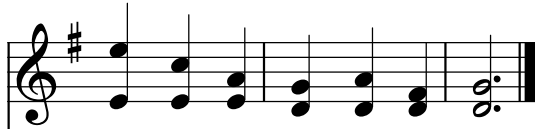

"Bromham", Timothy Richard Matthews, 1870

Bruce T. Forbes

♩=140

1. The dark - ness is spent, and soon comes the light— The day is dawn - ing, 'tis
2. Gir - ted with truth, we will stand for the Right And ne - ver wa - ver from
3. Our feet are shod - den in firm gos - pel truths To gain firm foot - ing while
4. Hope of Sal - va - tion our hel - met so strong To keep our minds pure our
5. Through Prayer we will find the strength and the pow'r To walk through dark - ness no
6. Just like a man - tle, I'll wear Char - i - ty For - e - ver reach - ing to
7. If I am faith ful to my com - mis - sion My King will be there to 8. If I but wie - ld His sword right - eous - ly A Scep - ter for Ri - ght hope - ful and bright. We must cast off all the works of the night, And we must His Truth, so bright. Righ - teous - ness will be our o - nly breast - plate— Our soul pro - still in our youth. We car - ry, al - so our Faith as a shield, A - gainst which who - le life long. A mi - ghty sword is our Fa - ther's Spir - it, Will cut through mat - ter the hour. U - ni - ted as one, we'll seek to a - gree Be - fore we all those I see. Just like my Sav - ior, I nev - er will cease To do for see His will done— He'll pro - tect my back from those who would try To cir - cle it then will be. Righ - teous - ness and Truth will e - ver pre - vail, And all that put on God's Ar - mor of Light.

- tect - ed from e - vil and hate.
E - vil e - ver must yie - ld.
E - vil and His truths in - vite.
kne - el and for His help plead.
o - thers and show them His peace.
'round me, His words to de - ny.
is good will ne - ver fail.

