4. His staff will lead, though dark the way And near to death we roam;
5. As world - ly foes all laugh and scorn, A meal He will pre - pare -
6. All that is good and filled with Grace Shall ease my jour - ney's way -

His path I'll fol - low all my life; On - ly His voice I'll hear.
There flows His streams of wa - ter, still, Those who par - take are blest.
His name I'll praise for - ev - er - more While in His arms, se - cure.
His rod pro - tec - ting eve - ry step As He leads me toward home.
With oil a - noint His trea - sured guests; O'r - flow - ing cups He'll share.
And in His house I'll find a place On Re - sur - rec - tion's day.
