

I Lift Mine Eyes

Words by Bruce T. Forbes

Music by Cydney Olson Van Duker

$\text{♩} = 90$

I lift mine eyes un - to His hill, from whence comes Heav - en's Re - joi - cing, then, let us a - scend as broth - ers, sis - ters, Up - on His hill we will be taught the gos - pel's law of Un - to Thee, Lord, I lift mine eyes; un - to Thy ho - ly aid, Di - stilled up - on the true in heart whose hopes shall nev - er One, To gath - er with His cho - sen seed, al mor - tal tri - als love, And through this knowl - edge be en - dowed with pow - er from A - place, I'll keep Thee ev - er in my sight; I'll seek Thy fade; For on His hill He slum - bers not, but watch - es night and won. There, from His throne, shall come the Peace this world will nev - er bove To be His en - sign to the world, pro - claim - ing all His face. Have mer - cy, Lord, as I trav - erse, through dark - ened night and day O're faith - ful pil - grims who a - scend His strait and nar - row way.

4

8

12

know Un - til they too seek out the Lord and in His ways then grow.
ways To all who'll come to Zi - on's mount and raise their voice in praise.
day, The path up - on Thy ho - ly hill: Thy strait and nar - row way.