

Two Gardens

Words and music by Donald Bugg

♩ = 70 - 80

1. In E - den, man-kind's mo-ther made the choice, By tas - ting death, to
2. Our fa - ther A - dam took the fruit of death, Ex - iled him - self from
3. Lo! In a - no - ther gar - den knelt and bled That Shep-herd our first 4. Wi - thin that gar - den and up - on a cross, His suff'-ring bought our
5. In gra - ti - tude and love let us re - call Those an - cient ones who give her chil - dren life. She passed thru sor - rows that we might re - earth - ly pa - ra - dise, Ex - changed long in - no - cence for mor - tal pa - rents knew of old. His flesh and blood the souls of all men souls with mer - cy sweet, Made in - ter - ces - sion for our pain and fell that men might be, A - dore the Christ who saves us from the joice, Knew good and e - vil, lived by toil and strife.

breath, Fore - saw Mes - si - ah's co - ming sac - ri - fice.
fed, Gave life, and con - quered sin for all his fold.
loss, That in his fa - ther's man-sions we may meet.
Fall, And of - fer him our hearts on ben - ded knee.