

Mother of Mine

Veda Jane Walker Green (1888-1981)

Martin Green b.1948

♩ = 96

Voice

Moth-er of mine, I nev-er

Piano

8

knew for just one life the price one must pay. Moth-er of mine, 15

I nev-er knew that lov-ing one's own meant toiling each day. All through the years, Moth-er of mine, you've prayed for me. How do I know? Moth-er of mine, these lips, too, have prayed for five* lit-tle (loved ones in

*singer may substitute her own number of children or alternate lyrics heads all in a row. Moth-er of mine, you gave an heav'n and here be-low.)

Red.

un-der-stand-ing heart. Now I give to my own the love that bound us from the start. All through the years, Moth-er of mine you've prayed for me. How do I know? Moth-er of mine, these lips, too, have prayed for five* lit-tle heads all in a row. Moth-er of (loved ones in heav'n and here be-low.)

50

57

63

70

rit.

mine, now I can know, Moth-er of mine how you loved me so.