Little Hands

Words and Music by Judy Cheekettts Hatch Piano arrangement edited by Ron Simpson

When the children gather to play and their small knees slowly bend.

I watch these precious tiny ones as they bow their heads in prayer and I smile standing there at each gentle pair of little hands. It's at times like these I'm thankful for my family. I see how blessed I am to have each one.
hands that need my guidance lit-tle hands that need my love.
Lit-tle hands that cling to my hands when the world outside gets rough.

Lit-tle

hands that Father loaned me, oh please show me what they need. Help me guide these priceless spirits safely home to
