

On Our Road to Damascus

Words and music by:
Shaillé Elder Claypool

"Those who diligently seek to learn of Christ eventually will come to know Him...This can be our experience if we move forward with faith and do not wait too long on the road to Damascus" (President Dieter F. Uchtdorf, "Waiting on the Road to Damascus", Ensign, May 2011, 70).

Voice

1. As Saul was
2. We too are

6

jour - ney - ing on the road to Da - mas - cus. He heard the jour - ney - ing on the road to Da - mas - cus. We must not Pno.

10

voice of the Lord, call - ing out his name. In stay in one place, wait - ing for a sign. As one grand moment he was for - e - ver changed. Do we some - times we press for-ward with— trust in the Lord, We will learn of Pno.

Pno.

14

19

wait to ex - per - i - ence the same? line. So we take small steps of Him, line— u - pon

Pno.

24

faith, go-ing fur - ther ev - 'ry day. As we seek Him we will find— one pu-zzle piece— at a time. When all the pie-ces are in place, we will Pno.

Pno.

29

33

tru - ly know and see our Sa-vior's face.

Pno.

rit.

40

So we take small steps of faith, go-ing fur-ther ev 'ry day. As we Pno.

a tempo

46

seek Him we will find one puzzle piece at a time. When Pno.

50

all the pieces are in place, we will truly know and see our Savior's face.

Pno. rit.

55

Pno. rubato

John 20:29