

Once in a Garden

Kathryn Latour
Composer

Reverently ♩ = 80

Voice

Piano

1. Once in a
2. She had looked

6

gar - den in a ci - ty called Jer - u - sa - lem, came a young mai - den with a on as they — placed Him in a bor - rowed tomb. Bold Ro - man sol - diers had —

Pno.

11

soul full of loss. Her heart was bro - ken for the ru - lers had spo - ken that 11 sealed it with stone. Find - ing it em - pty with the clothes fold - ed gent - ly but Pno.

crescendo

mf

17

1. 2.

Je - sus, her Mas - ter would die on the cross.
 where had they ta - ken the One who a - toned?

Pno.

23

agitato

23 Pro - phets had told of the co - ming Mes - si - ah. the crescendo f

Pno.

29

29 One who would free Is - ra - el. Je - sus had said that He came to re - f

Pno.

36 con dolore

36 deem them but now He was gone. — Their hope was now gone!

Pno. rit. mp a tempo

42

Pno. f dim.

48

Pno. mp crescendo f

55

55 "Please, Sir," said the mai - den to a man she thought was gar - den - ing.

Pno. dim. mp

Once in a Garden

4
61

"I seek the bo - dy of Je - sus, my King." "Ma - ry," He whis - pered. As He

Pno. mf

67

ut - tered that one word, she knew He had ri - sen and death had no sting.

Pno. f

73

Je - sus is ri - sen and death has no sting!

Pno. ff

78

Pno. ff