

What Kind of Servant

Text by Art Sherwood
Music by Don Sherwood

♩ = 84-96

As I

pon-der 'bout my life that's just a - head, as I'm called forth to spread the gos-pel word, what do these next two years of life hold in store for me as I em - bark in the ser-vice of my Lord? Will I be like un-to Ne-phi, hav-ing pure and per-fect faith that the Lord would pro-vide for him a way to ac-

comp-lish the task that was re - quired of him by the Lord in the wil-der-ness that day?

18

What kind of ser-vant will I be for thee, my King, as I teach a-mong thy chil-dren on this earth? Will I touch their hearts, O Lord, with the sweet-ness of thy word? Will I learn what a soul to thee is worth? Will I be like un-to Am-mon show-ing true, un-fail-ing love to the peo-ple to whom none dared go be - fore; who taught with all his soul, bring-ing na-tions to the fold of the ev-er-last-ing gos-pel of the Lord?

22

26

31

35

What kind of ser-vant will I be for thee, my King? as I teach a-mong thy chil-dren on this earth? Will I touch their hearts, O Lord, with the sweet-ness of thy word? Will I learn what a soul to thee is worth? Will I learn what a soul to thee is worth? As I sit here pon-d'ring still of the things I want to be, and I won-der if I ev-er will achieve, I feel a still, small voice in - side whis-p'ring to my heart, "My son, all is pos-si-ble in rall. a tempo rall. a tempo

39

43

rall. a tempo

47

52

me!" I will be thy faith-ful ser-vant, O my King! I will share the love that thou hast shared with

rit. a tempo

56

me! Oh, how joy-ful it will be as I bring souls un-to thee, and re - joice with them through - out e-ter-nity! And re - joice with them through - out e-ter-ni - ty!

60

rit.

64