

God's Infinite, Eternal Power

Words: Michael D. Young

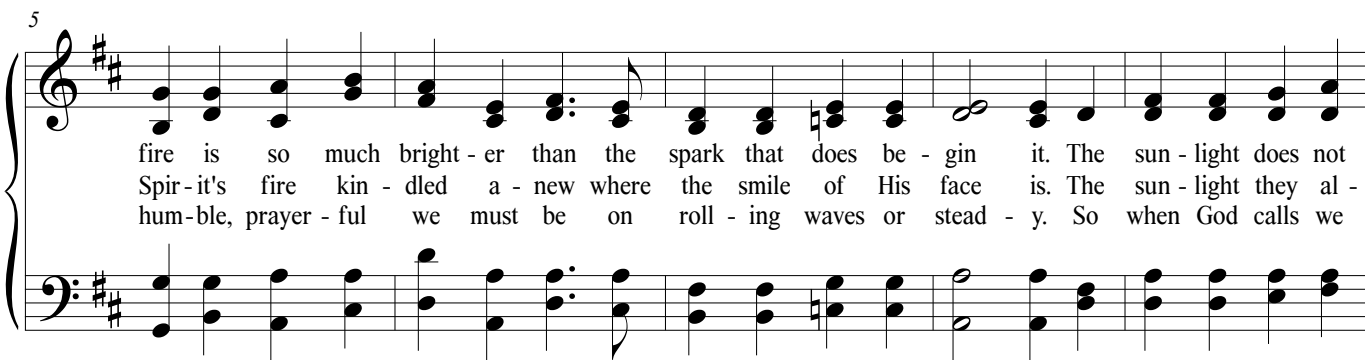

Music: Rick Graham

With Awe and Praise (♩ = 85)

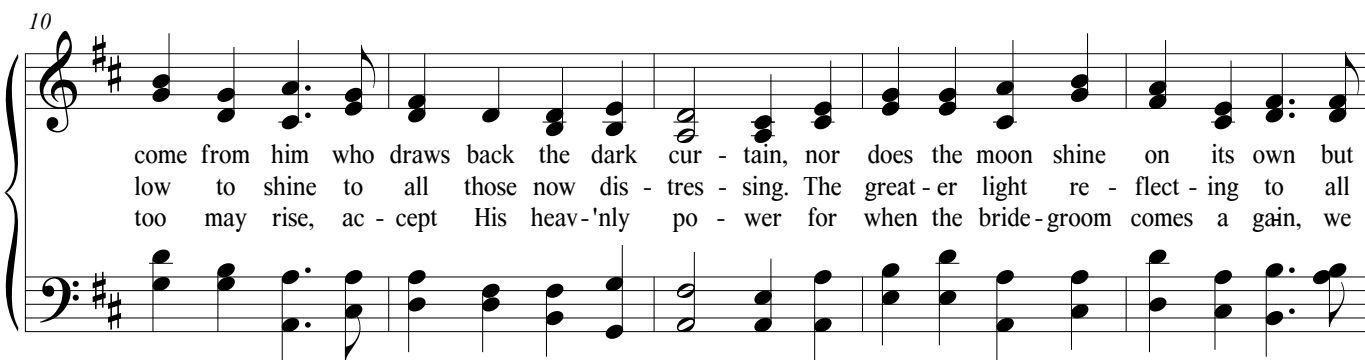

1. The ves - sel is not great - er than the oil that lies with - in it. The
2. God's ser - vants fill their lamps a - new through His e - ter - nal gra - ces. The
3. Then wor - thy ves - sels we must be and serv - ants pure and read - y. And fire is so much bright - er than the spark that does be - gin it. The sun - light does not Spir - it's fire kin - dled a - new where the smile of His face is. The sun - light they al - hum - ble, prayer - ful we must be on roll - ing waves or stead - y. So when God calls we come from him who draws back the dark cur - tain, nor does the moon shine on its own but low to shine to all those now dis - tres - sing. The great - er light re - flect - ing to all too may rise, ac - cept His heav - 'nly po - wer for when the bride - groom comes a gain, we shows the sun for cer - tain.

5

10

15

those who seek God's bles - sing. God's in - fi - nite, e - ter - nal pow'r does sus - tain us ev' - ry hour.
know not when the hour.