1. Ear - ly that morn, the Sab - bath done,
2. With hea - vy heart, on - ward they tread
3. As they ar - rived, to their sur - prise
4. And at the en - trance of the tomb,
5. He Lives! My Sa - vior, Lord and King!

the wo - men come, e're ris - ing sun.
'neath skies of pur - ple, blue, and the stone was rolled, their voi - ces red.
an an - gel then dis - pelled their gloom.
Let heav'n and earth, His prais - es sing!

With spic - es lad - en by death's hill
With in that sep - ul - chre was lain,
The em - pty tomb! To where? We pray,
"Why seek the liv - ing from the dead?
For He ful - filled His Fa - ther's plan,

now press - ing through the gar - den still.
their pre - cious Je - sus, who was slain.
for they have tak - en Him a way!
For He has ris - en, as He said!"
to bring to pass im - mor - tal man!
