

O Thou Whose Glory Fills the Heav'ns

Earnestly ♩ = 86

Words: attributed to Charles Moir
Music: Rick Graham

1. O Thou whose glo - ry fills the heav'ns, whose boun - ty clothes the earth.
2. While en - t'ring on an - oth - er year our cares on Thee we cast,
3. How need - ful, then to train our thoughts, and fan the heav'n - ly flame

To Thee a hymn of thanks we raise for bless - ings from our birth.
be - seech - ing aid in days to come which cheered us through the past.
of faith, in the be - liev - ing heart, tri - umph o'er sin and shame

For that un - tir - ing love Thou dost, from day to day re - new,
That still the free - dom may be ours to kneel down in Thy sight,
and hold - ing by Thy word, Thou hast for love and guid - ance giv'n,

O may it on our hearts de - scend like heav - en - dis - tilled dew.
and wor - ship Thee at end of day, and in the morn - ing light.
pass through this world, o - be - di - ent, true can - di - dates for heav'n.
